(Photo: Chris Ross/The Vindicator) Hocking Hills resident Noel Yoder was introduced by the Franklin County GOP committee Monday as the possible successor to Bill Clampitt, who will retire in July. Yoder, a Niles resident, was introduced as the possible new executive director for the Department of Natural Resources by a delegation of about 20 GOP officials. His appointment, if it is made, would be for the time period of the current executive director, Bill Clampitt, who will retire in July. A replacement will be selected by the incoming Republican Party of Hocking Hills executive committee at its meeting in May. Yoder said Monday, "I appreciate the opportunity to run for the position and would like to do a good job." Yoder is not a nominee for the position, he said. He has been very involved in the local Republican Party for the past several years, he said. "I'm pleased to be a candidate because I want to do a good job and make a difference for the people of Hocking Hills, and that's what this job is all about," he said. Clampitt has been at the helm of the department for 23 years, and his last day will be July 7. He has been under consideration for the position for months, and the delegation's primary job was to find out who was interested in the position, and also to tell Clampitt they hoped he would accept the position if it was offered. "I had no idea who they wanted, and they came out and said, 2d92ce491b
