Can You Cry Like A Real Girl [INSTALL] [RUBY 1.9.2] [2015-10-19] [REPACK] .Q: Wordpress API : run custom function on post publish I have a custom function that adds a custom field to the post after a user has published a post, however I need to find a way to run this function when a user publishes a post. The function currently takes the post id as an argument and is only triggered when the post is unpublished. A: Perhaps you should check if the post is already published, and if so run your function. {}, 8 (1996) T. Hotta, J. Phys. A [**25**]{}, 3679 (1992) T. Hotta, Phys. Rev.
